

Glow in the Dark Tennis Handbook

1.1 The Glow-in-the-dark Tennis handbook is protected under applicable copyright laws.

1.2 No part of this handbook may be reproduced in any form, nor transmitted by any means, to any parties outside of the entity that purchased the book. It has been produced for the sole and private purposes of the purchasing entity.

1.3 The Glow-in-the-dark Tennis handbook has been produced for tennis clubs and/or businesses interested in running glow in the dark tennis events at their owned/leased venue. Events are not to be run outside of the purchasing entities tennis facilities.

1.4 The document may be shared amongst the members of the purchasing entity but must not be shared it outside of your club/business.

1.5 The entity purchasing the Glow in the dark Tennis Handbook are entitled to name their event Glow in the Dark Tennis or other variations but are not however permitted to use the NIGHTVISION Brand which was created and protected by Parkside Tennis Academy.

1.6 No responsibility will be taken for injury, damage or loss that occurs while planning or running glow in the dark tennis events. The purchasing entity is responsible for assessing individual risk and putting in place appropriate mitigations relevant to their event and venue.

www.parksidetennis.com.au